Busy: Reconnecting with an Unhurried God “The Right Tempo”

I invite you to a deep breath...

[take a moment to breathe in and out slowly]

If you have a watch on, I invite you to take it off for this hour of worship.

If you have a phone, I invite you to turn it off or put it away now. If that makes you very anxious, that's OK—maybe next week you'll be able to do it.

Just notice the feeling and give it some thought. Let these simple acts (or maybe not-so-simple acts) be a sign of the commitment to give ourselves a break, to give ourselves just an hour to catch our breath, to give our selves time to give God attention.

Taking a Breather

As we gather together, we will use the first part of our service to slow down, to settle our souls so that we might reconnect with an Unhurried God.

Taking Note

The second part of our service invites us to “take note” of what God is saying to us this day through the children, through music, through offering and through the sermon.

Invitation to Children’s Time

[the children are invited forward toward the end of the peace and music begins under the invitation. The people sing as the children come forward and as the adults settle into their seats]

Taking Care

The third part of our service is our response to having listened for God’s word. We “take care” to focus through prayer on what’s really important, really essential, to lives lived with depth.

Taking It Out

The final movement of our service is a time of committing to take a bit of this serenity and peace out into the busy world. We are reminded to “keep the main thing the main thing.”
